

Youth Activities

ONGOING - Pavilion - Caryn MacLuan

Children's Activity Table

Self-play activities such as blocks and coloring. Parents are asked to please keep an eye on this and help keep the toys and coloring materials in one place.

ONGOING - Flagpole - Greg Fink & AnneMarie Elaina Dralus

Water Weapons

Self-play with buckets of water and water weapons. Children, youth, and parents are asked to help make sure the weapons get back to the flag pole before each meal.

ONGOING - All Around the Camp - Ristandi

Find the Heathen Rocks

Carved stones with runes or messages will be hidden in plain sight around the camp. The youth can search for these during the event and keep the ones they find.

Thursday 10:00 am - Field (in the shade) - Ginger Ausband

T-Shirt Tie Dye

Make your own tie-dye T-shirt to take home. There will be two small folding tables to act as tie dye central (the plastic tables have been used for it before, and staining isn't a problem). Gloves will be provided.

Please bring a plain white or light colored t-shirt if you wish to participate.

Children under 6 need a parent to help.

Thursday 3:00 pm - Firepit - Joe Marek & Wulf Johnson

Viking Age Weaponry (Youth but adults are also welcome)

This class will be a hands-on demonstration and discussion of Viking age weaponry, history, who was using them, how they were used, and how they were made.

Friday 10:00 am - Field - Joe Marek & Wulf Johnson

Basic Swordsman'ship (Youth but adults are also welcome)

We will cover basic sword moves both offensive and defensive and allow time for the participants to practice.

Saturday 10:00 am - Main Hall - Erika Conolly

Children's Sumbel

Sumbel is our most sacred ritual! Kids and teens are encouraged to come hail the gods, hail the ancestors, and brag about their accomplishments in the past year. We will have written parts if teens would like to take any of the main parts and help to teach the children.

Saturday 11:00 am - Field (in the shade) - Ginger Ausband & Mike Stahl

Paint the World Tree

Paint a World Tree on a large sheet and learn about the different realms, and lore around the World Tree at the same time. The children will make the leaves with their hand prints on the world tree and as they paint the design. We will be telling them lore about all the animals, the realms, and Odin discovering the runes by hanging on the tree. We also welcome having the adults also put hand prints on the tree.

Children under 6 need a parent to help.

Saturday 2:30 pm - Lake - Camp Lifeguard

Open Swim

Camp lifeguard must be on site. Will take place directly following Pillage the Village. Parents are encouraged to accompany their children.

Saturday 3:30 pm - Pavilion - AnneMarie Elaina Dralus

Bingo Marker Painting for the Littles

AnneMarie will have images for the littlest ones to paint with bingo markers.

Saturday 5:00 pm - Archery Range - Jack Falls & Mike Stahl

Children's Archery

This will be after the adult archery completion. Parents are encouraged to help supervise this event.
